MEMORANDUM FOR MR. ALLEN DULLES
DIRECTOR, CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: NSC INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVES

As you know, the Doolittle Report on CIA's covert activities recommends (at page 40) that the Director of Central Intelligence (as coordinator of foreign intelligence activities) should report regularly to the National Security Council on the status of efforts to implement NSC (Intelligence) Directives, with particular emphasis on major unresolved questions.

At your convenience would you let me have your views as to the procedures which should be followed in reporting to the NSC on CIA's implementation of the above recommendation.

Perhaps your Quarterly Report to the Council would be the best vehicle for reporting such information to the Council; another possibility might be to include such information in your semi-annual status report to the NSC.

ROBERT CUTLER
Special Assistant to the President

He has set your next Quarterly Report at April 7th.
