Dear Allen:

I was much interested in the clipping from the Times-Herald which I am returning. I know Walter Trohan and though he is a nice enough fellow personally, he is the alter ego for McCormick and the hatchet man for the Tribune. His writings are normally carried in the Chicago Tribune which, of course, means the Times Herald also.

I am still cogitating those articles but haven't had any time yet to really work on them. Since writing you, I have been commuting to Washington.

It was good seeing you the other day.

Regards.

Sincerely,

Hansen
