

ARMY WAR COLLEGE
CARLISLE BARRACKS, PENNSYLVANIA

OFFICE OF THE COMMANDANT

17 May 1956

Dear Mr. Dulles:

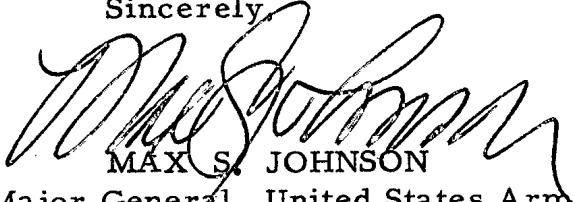

With the National Strategy Seminar less than a month away, I am sending you additional information which you may find of value.

I am inclosing a list of distinguished guests who, to date, have indicated that they plan to attend the Seminar. Additionally, I am inclosing a copy of the course directive. It covers the past work in the course and the schedule and procedures we plan to follow during the Seminar.

In order that we may properly plan for your reception, we would appreciate knowing your plans as to mode of travel and time and place of arrival at your earliest convenience. We are also hopeful that your commitments will permit you to remain throughout the Seminar.

Again let me say that all here are looking forward with the keenest anticipation to receiving you as a guest of the Army War College and to hearing your views on "The World Situation".

Sincerely,

MAX S. JOHNSON
Major General, United States Army
Commandant
