MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, CI Staff

SUBJECT : Forgery Documents

1. Attached is a Xerox of two forgeries and a covering letter sent to various Senators, as indicated. This was sent to me by the Legislative Counsel at my request, after he had mentioned the existence of these documents at the DCI's morning meeting. Apparently there was no "original;" that is, only photocopies or Xeroxes were distributed. On the blue "MEMORANDUM FOR" sheet Mr. Cary has also forwarded [REDACTED]

2. I understand Mr. Gambino has been charged with telling the Secret Service about his event, but I have no knowledge that anyone is taking an operational look at it. While it may well be the result of a crank's inventiveness, the M.O.--distribution of copies of alleged genuine documents--resembles the techniques used by the Soviets [REDACTED]

3. May I suggest that if you are interested in pursuing this matter, you apply to Mr. Cary for any further background information you need.
