Meeting of Special Subcommittee Chaired by Walter Rostow
29 October 1962

1. At the 29 October meeting of the Special Subcommittee chaired by Mr. Walter Rostow, it was noted that there is now a danger that recent events will lead many groups in Latin America to relax efforts toward social and economic reform. It was stated that a letter is being prepared for the President to send to Chiefs of State throughout Latin America to re-emphasize the importance of the Alliance.
2. The DD/P will insure that all field stations in the area give appropriate support to the mission chiefs in this effort.
3. The Office of the Director will be kept informed of significant action taken.
