CI BRIEFING TALKING POINTS

I. Current Developments In Counterintelligence From A Community Perspective:

o   Despite a limited EO 12036 definition of CI we have moved with SCC/CI support to a comprehensive threat and total protective countermeasure concept.

o   At SCC/CI direction we have produced for the Community:

    -   A multidisciplinary Baseline Report providing a factual basis for an expanded CI concept and raising a wide variety of issues for SCC/CI consideration.

    -   A first overall assessment of the effectiveness of the total hostile intelligence service threat and of United States countermeasures thereto.

o   Because CI analytical tools have thus become multidisciplinary, the SCC/CI has directed the DCI to establish a small interagency-staffed center for macro-analysis of the threat and for net assessments.
    This is now being done.
