25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

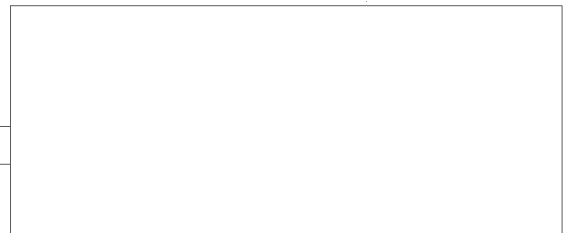

We have concluded our review of the material which you sent us regarding [redacted] and regret to advise you that there appears to be no immediate opportunity for his employment with us.

Our recruitment is generally limited to replacing turn-over among clerical personnel and obtaining a few junior officer trainees. Openings for men of more specialized or executive experience, such as [redacted] are infrequent and there appears to be nothing now available which would be commensurate with his qualifications.

We appreciate your referral of [redacted] and, should a position become available for him, we shall be glad to get in touch with you.

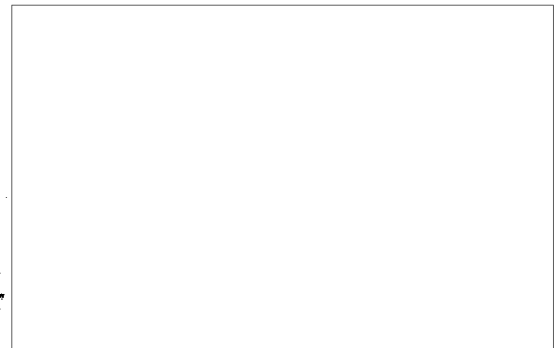

Sincerely,

G. M. Stewart
Director of Personnel
