Thank you for your two letters of November 29th.

The one in which you so highly recommend [Redacted] I have given to our Director of Personnel with the request that he explore fully the possibilities of our utilizing [Redacted] fine talents. He will contact [Redacted] direct in this matter. I very much appreciate your bringing him to my personal attention.

Your other interesting letter concerning certain events in the Middle East I have referred to our appropriate specialists for further study and recommendation. Here again I am most appreciative of your inviting this information to my attention.
