OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

May 6, 1955

Dear Allen:

On Thursday, June sixteenth at ten-thirty o'clock in the morning we will hold our sixty-ninth annual Commencement at Convention Hall at which time we will confer honorary degrees on several outstanding people, including Vice President Nixon.

We would like very much to have you, as an honorary alumnus, march in the academic procession and help us to honor Mr. Nixon.

I am planning to ask possibly a dozen of our most distinguished honorary degree recipients if they would not care to join us this year and you certainly would be most welcome.

I am enclosing a form for an academic costume, which we will order for you. If you find it possible to attend will you please fill in the form and return it to me.

As you may recall - we have a luncheon following the ceremonies at The Barclay and we do hope you and your wife will be able to join us.

If your wife comes with you please bring her to the Meeting Room, where she will join Mrs. Johnson and sit with her in the reserved seat section. The Meeting Room is the place where we assemble at ten o'clock in order to have ample time to form the academic procession.

I do hope you will be able to be with us.

Cordially yours,

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
