

ARMY-NAVY

13 November 1973

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Many thanks for the invitation to ride to Philadelphia for the Army/Navy game on the special train that has been arranged for the occasion. To my regret I will be unable to attend the game, my presence here being required in the Director's absence. I much appreciate your thoughtfulness in extending the invitation.

With every good wish,

Faithfully,

Vernon A. Walters

INFORMATION MEMORANDUM
1973 Army-Navy Game

The Secretary of the Army has reserved two parlor cars for use of his invited guests for travel to the Army-Navy Game, 1 December 1973. In addition, two coach cars, coupled in front of the parlor cars, will provide seating capacity for the children and friends of Mr. Callaway's guests and for others who wish to travel to the game and return, space available.

Train fare for the parlor car is $40.70 per person, round trip. Brunch, snacks and drinks will be served. Train fare for those riding the coach cars will be $25.50 per person, round trip. On the coach cars a box lunch will be served, including soft drinks, coffee and beer. Coach car passengers are expected to provide their own liquor. Children under 12 can ride the coach car for $16.00 per person. Make all checks payable to LTC William H. Roche.

Tentative schedule for Saturday, December 1, follows:

- 0825 Train departs Washington Union Station
- 1115 Pre-game activities
- 1250 Game starts
- 1700 (approx) Train departs JFK Stadium
- 1930 (approx) Train arrives Washington Union Station

The Secretary's parlor cars, R-300 and R-301 will be the end cars (closest to the gate) of train W-3. Coach cars will be located directly in front of them on the train (last 4 cars on Train W-3 will contain the Secretary's party).

Please arrive at Union Station early enough to park and board the train prior to 0820 hours. Everyone is expected to return to the train within 30 minutes after the end of the game.

There are a number of parking lots close to Union Station. However, free parking is available in the Senate Office Building parking lot at First and D Streets, N. E. for the Secretary's party. Call OX7-5338 for a windshield parking permit.

Car R-301, the next-to-last car on the train, will contain a radio-telephone for emergency communications to the Pentagon. A radio-telephone will be available in the Superintendent's Box.
