STAT

Thank you for your letter of 27 June 1949 relative to the possibilities of a position with this Agency.

Since receipt of your application papers early this month, we have been surveying the Agency to determine whether we have a suitable vacancy for which you might be considered. Nothing definite has been found to date but the survey is being continued with a view to arriving at an early determination. We will inform you just as soon as possible of a final determination. In the meanwhile, your availability for personal interview has been noted and you may be sure we will call for you if anything turns up which would make it worth your while.

Your continued interest and desire to be of service are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Sgd and disp via ER 6/30/49.
