Attached is a diagram showing the induction and discharge dates of year classes of the Soviet Army between 1938 and 1953. The diagram also gives a survey of the trained reserves available in the USSR. The figures on the left margin of the chart represent year classes, those at the bottom of the chart the years of induction and discharge. Data covering the period from 1938 to 1945 are taken from records of the former German Army High Command, General Staff of the Army, Fremde Heere Ost Division.
