OLL

8 November 1978

OLC: 78-3299

MEMORANDUM FOR: All Morning Meeting Participants

FROM: Frederick P. Hitz
Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT: Preliminary Election Results

1. Senators Anderson (D., Minn.), Brooke (R., Mass.), Clark (D., Iowa), Griffin (R., Mich.), Haskell (D., Colo.), Hathaway (D., Me.) and McIntyre (D., N.H.) have been defeated. In Texas, Senator Tower has a slim lead over Bob Krueger. Warner appears to have edged out Miller in Virginia, and Democratic Senator Jennings Randolph seems to have narrowly defeated former Governor Arch Moore in West Virginia.

2. In the House, Koreagate appears to have done in Democrat John McFall of California, but the two other California Democrats reprimanded in the House investigation of South Korean influence buying, Edward Roybal and Charles Wilson, were re-elected. Pennsylvania Democrat Joshua Eilberg, who is under federal indictment, was defeated, along with Florida Republican J. Herbert Burke, who had pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and resisting arrest charges. But Michigan Democrat Charles Diggs, who has been convicted on federal fraud charges, was re-elected, as was Pennsylvania Democrat Daniel Flood, whose trial on several Federal perjury counts begins in January.

3. An analysis of the effect of the election and of retirements on our key Senate and House Committess is attached.

SIGNED

Frederick P. Hitz

Gary Hart (D., Colo.)	Richard G. Lugar (R., Ind.)
Daniel P. Moynihan (D., N.Y.)	Malcolm Wallop (R., Wyo.)

1. Senator Hathaway was defeated by Republican Representative William S. Cohen.
2. Senator Huddleston easily defeated Republican State Representative Louie Guenther.
3. Senator Biden had little problem defeating Republican James H. Baxter Jr.
4. Senator Case was defeated by conservative Jeffrey Bell in the Republican primary. Bell lost to Democrat Bill Bradley.
5. Senator Pearson is retiring.

NOTE: Senators Morgan and Hart are due to rotate off the SSCI in January, and Senator Mathias could also leave if the size of the Committee is reduced. This is tentative, however, and we will have to see how the Committee organizes itself in January.

James R. Sasser (D., Tenn.)	*Defense Subcommittee
Dennis DeConcini (D., Ariz.)
Dale Bumpers (D., Ark.)*

1. Senator Johnston was unopposed in the general election by virtue of his primary victory under Louisiana's new (and unique) voting system.
2. Senator Huddleston easily defeated Republican State Representative Louie Guenthner.
3. Senator Case was defeated by conservative Jeffrey Bell in the Republican primary. Bell lost to Democrat Bill Bradley.
4. Senator Brooke was defeated by Democratic Representative Paul Tsongas.
5. Senator Hatfield beat Democratic State Senator Vernon Cooke.
6. Senator Stevens overwhelmed Democratic nominee Donald Hobbs.

NOTE: Senator Case's departure and Senator Brooke's defeat opens two slots on the Defense Subcommittee.

Senate Foreign Relations Committee

Richard Stone (D., Fla.)
Paul S. Sarbanes (D., Md.) | 8 | Robert P. Griffin (R., Mich.) |
| | | 9 | Howard H. Baker (R., Tenn.) |

1. Chairman Sparkman is retiring.
2. Senator Pell handily defeated Republican candidate James G. Reynolds.
3. Senator Clark lost to conservative former Lt. Governor Roger Jepsen.
4. Senator Biden had little problem defeating Republican James H. Baxter Jr.
5. Senator Case was defeated by conservative Jeffrey Bell in the Republican primary. Bell lost to Democrat Bill Bradley.
6. Senator Pearson is retiring.
7. Senator Percy prevailed over the Democratic nominee, attorney Alex Seith.
8. Senator Griffin was defeated by former Detroit City Council President Carl Levin.
9. Senator Baker had little trouble defeating Democratic nominee Jane Eskind.

NOTE: Senator Church is in line for the Foreign Relations Chairmanship, and Senator Javits will be the Ranking Minority Member next year.

Senate Armed Services Intelligence Subcommittee

Harry F. Byrd (I., Va.), Chairman
John C. Stennis (D., Miss.)

Barry M. Goldwater (R., Ariz.),
Ranking Minority Member

NOTE: No Members were up for re-election.

House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence

Edward P. Boland (D., Mass.),
Chairman

Clement J. Zablocki (D., Wis.)

Bill D. Burlison (D., Mo.)

Morgan F. Murphy (D., Ill.)

Les Aspin (D., Wis.)

Charles Rose (D., N.C.)

Romano L. Mazzoli (D., Ky.)

Norman Mineta (D., Calif.)

Wyche Fowler (D., Ga.)

Bob Wilson (R., Calif.),

Ranking Minority Member

John Ashbrook (R., Ohio)

Robert McClory (R., Ill.)

J. Kenneth Robinson (R., Va.)

NOTE: There are no retirements among the HPSCI Members. All of the Committee's Members appear to have been re-elected.

House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee

1	George H. Mahon (D., Texas), Chairman	Jack Edwards (R., Ala.), Ranking Minority Member
2	Robert L. F. Sikes (D., Fla.)	J. Kenneth Robinson (R., Va.)
3	Daniel J. Flood (D., Pa.) Joseph P. Addabbo (D., N.Y.)	Jack F. Kemp (R., N.Y.)
4	John J. McFall (D., Calif.)
5	John J. Flynt (D., Ga.) Robert N. Giaimo (D., Conn.) Bill Chappell (D., Fla.) Bill D. Burlison (D., Mo.)

1. Chairman Mahon is retiring.
2. Sikes is retiring.
3. Flood has been indicted on several Federal perjury counts, but was re-elected to his sixteenth House term. His trial is not scheduled to begin until next January.
4. The "Koreagate" issue probably cost the 11 term veteran McFall his seat. he was defeated by Republican Norman Shumway. McFall was reprimanded by the House on 13 October for failing to report a $3,000 1974 campaign contribution from Tongsun Park.
5. Flynt is retiring.

NOTE: The remaining Subcommittee's Members appear to have retained their seats. Jamie Whitten's chances for assuming Chairmanship of the full Appropriations Committee are probably 75-25. Addabbo's chances for assuming Chairmanship of the Defense Subcommittee are even better.

House International Relations Committee

	E. (Kiki) de la Garza (D., Texas)
	George E. Danielson (D., Calif.)
	John J. Cavanaugh (D., Neb.)

1. Diggs was re-elected, but he could face a move for expulsion, censure, or reprimand if his conviction is upheld on appeal. Diggs has been convicted of mail fraud and other charges involving fraudulent handling of office payroll accounts. He faces a maximum sentence of 5 years imprisonment on each of 29 counts and almost $200,000 in fines.
2. Nix was defeated in the Democratic primary.
3. Fraser was defeated in a bid for the Democratic nomination for the late Senator Hubert Humphrey's Senate seat. Bob Short, who beat Fraser, was defeated by David Durenberger.
4. Harrington is retiring.

5. Burke was defeated by Broward County Sheriff Edward Stack. In September, Burke pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and resisting arrest charges growing out of an incident earlier this year in the parking lot of a night club in his district. He also pleaded no contest to a charge of witness tampering.
6. Whalen is retiring.
7. Pettis is retiring.

NOTE: The rest of the Committee's Members appear to have retained their seats. At least two Subcommittee Chairmanships will open up in January. Harrington has headed the Subcommittee on International Development, and Fraser has chaired the Subcommittee on International Organizations. Diggs chairs the Subcommittee on Africa.

House Armed Services Subcommittee on Intelligence and Military Application of Nuclear Energy

Melvin Price (D., Ill.), Chairman	Bob Wilson (R., Calif.), Ranking Minority Member
1 Charles Wilson (D., Calif.)	William L. Dickinson (R., Ala.)
Jack Brinkley (D., Ga.)	Marjorie S. Holt (R., Md.)
Dan Daniel (D., Va.)	Robert Daniel (R., Va.)
G. V. (Sonny) Montgomery (D., Miss.)
Ronald Dellums (D., Calif.)
Bob Carr (D., Mich.)
Charles E. Bennett (D., Fla.)
Samuel S. Stratton (D., N.Y.)

1. Wilson was re-elected despite having been reprimanded by the House for failing to tell the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct about a $1,000 wedding present from Tongsun Park.

NOTE: The remainder of the Subcommittee's Members have apparently retained their seats.
