TONNINGEN, ROST van

Secretary to Zimmermann, Commissioner-General of the League of Nations for Austria, 1923-1926; representative of the League of Nations' Council at Vienna, 1931-1936 / was used by Dr. Dolfuss on various occasions for confidential missions to Berlin and Rome; the associations he thus formed may have proved rather heavy wine for a somewhat unstable temperament; when Dolfuss was killed, his successor, Dr. SCHUSCHNIGG--who had formed an unfavorable opinion of van Tonningen--kept him strictly to his official duties.
