1. Leuna, Merseburg (D91)

Being dismantled but it is not yet possible to say whether the entire plant is to be removed.

Zeiss, Jena (J66)

Being dismantled; until recently 18,000-20,000 people had been employed. The technical and specialist staff are to go to the U.S.S.R.

Junkers, Leipzig, Delitscherstrasse, branch establishment.

Dismantling is nearing completion.

Hydrierwerk Reuden, near Zeitz (K08) (sic, probably Erabag Zeitz-Tröglitz)

Synthetic fuel plant is being dismantled.

Maschinenfabrik Klingebiel, Schwerin (T46)

Has recently been completely dismantled. It formerly employed 120-140 people.

Hydrierwerk Pölitiz (Q57)

Rebuilt after the capitulation and worked to capacity; additional staff was constantly sought from the surrounding districts. In September 1946, an additional 5,000 workmen were brought from Mecklenburg and dismantling was begun. The plant and a number of engineers and specialists were taken away.
