1. The EAM/KKE demonstration held on 7 February before the Acropole Hotel, Athens headquarters of the U. N. Investigation Commission, was secretly planned and highly organized by the KOB's (Communist Organization of the Base) in an effort to prevent police interference. In the event that serious trouble had occurred during the demonstration, EAM/KKE planned to argue that the gathering was a spontaneous demand for a hearing before the U. N. Commission, but was not a substitute for the meeting requested and scheduled for 8 February, but prohibited by the Government.
2. A second EAM application to hold a demonstration, with the alleged purpose of showing the public's desire for "conciliation" with the Andartes and for a termination of hostilities, was denied by the Government on the grounds that such a demonstration would constitute a threat to public security.
