1. The Committee of Yugoslav Moslem organizations in exile (J.M.O.) issued a declaration at the start of the year, which called, inter alia, for the exiled representatives of the Mohamedans of Bosnia and Herzegovina to reject any policy which would "split or divide" the provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina for "any reason whatsoever". Consequently, the declaration continued, the representatives are against "all alliances which would reach the point of encircling their national provinces", demanding of the Moslems there to declare whether they are Serbs or Croats.

25X1

2. The declarations stated that the unity of Bosnia and Herzegovina within their historic borders is founded on their past. This unity has not been contested by any foreigner economically or geographically. For this reason the Mohamedans cannot be satisfied with any "spurious solution" such as Communism today.
