1. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Montevideo will continue to ignore the designation of Karel Hoyer as Czechoslovak Minister to Uruguay. A communication from Prague naming Hoyer to the post left vacant by Dr. Miroslav Rasin arrived recently at the Uruguayan Foreign Office and has been disregarded. One official at the Foreign Office commented that no amount of pressure applied by the Prague Government will result in Hoyer's official recognition.
2. A previous communication from Czechoslovak diplomats in Buenos Aires, designating the alleged Communist agent as Dr. Rasin's successor, was also ignored (cf. [REDACTED]), and the Foreign Office was expected to continue printing Dr. Rasin's name as the official Czechoslovak representative in Uruguay.
