REPORT NO.

1. During the course of a press interview on 16 November for El Diario de Hoy, a pro-unionist newspaper, President Castaneda of El Salvador made some off-the-record remarks. He stated that he had no fear of leaving the country should the proposed meeting of Central American presidents materialize, since he controlled the Army completely.
2. Castaneda added that he controlled all the other candidates (whom he would invite to make the trip with him), and that none of them could make a move without his authorization.
