11. A big hydro-electric power plant is being built at Ovcar-Banja, in the vicinity of Cacak.
12. Big magazines to shelter foodstuffs and war materiel are being built along the Ibar valley, near Raska and Usce.
13. The following government structures are being built at the Belgrade market-place:
 1. Parliament of the Federal National Yugoslav Republic.
 2. The building of the Yugoslav Communist Party.
14. In addition to the present narrow gauge railway line between Kraljevo and Uzice, a normal gauge track is being built.
15. Railway repair shops in Krusevac, Kraljevo, Ljubic and Veles work in three shifts.
16. At the village Brdjane, near Caoak, on the Caoak-Belgrade railway-track, there are six large concrete gasoline tanks guarded by KNOJ soldiers.
17. There are also four concrete gasoline tanks, guarded by KNOJ soldiers, at Bogutovac in the vicinity of Kraljevo, along the railway line Kraljevo-Kosovska Mitrovica; another six concrete gasoline tanks at Emilska Stena, along the railway line Ovcar Banja-Uzice are also guarded by soldiers of the KNOJ Corps.
18. The "exploitation of forests" is taking place at the mountains of Kopaonik, Kukavica, Jelica and Crni Vrh, in the vicinity of Bor. Woodcutters are composed of political criminals and the Labor Brigade.
19. There are about 3,000 miners working in the antimony mine called "Nisa"--near the village of Ivanjica. The ore is being sent to Czechoslovakia.
20. Marmelade factories at Uzicka Posega, Valjevo and Kragujevac, are producing large quantities of marmelade for the army.
21. The number of Militia soldiers has been increased in the following places: Kraljevo by 25 men; Kragujevac by 42 men; Cacak by 30 men; Nis by 50 men. This reinforcement is ascribed to the fact that some followers of the Cominform have been spotted among the workers.
