1. Gen. Emiliano Chamorro, Nicaraguan Conservative leader now in exile, is said to have informed a supporter inside Nicaragua that he would return to the country if nothing was done by 10 January 1949 to oust Somoza. A radical change in oppositionist plans is foreseen if Chamorro decides to work from within Nicaragua.
2. Uprisings originally scheduled to take place in late December in the Segovia and other areas of Nicaragua have now been postponed indefinitely by the oppositionists because of international complications caused by the attack on Costa Rica.
