1. Anti-Communist guerrillas are reportedly active in the Sernena Gora (a range of mountains) north of Stara Zagora; in the Borisovgrad region; in Chirpan and on Sakar Planina between Harmanli and Svilengrad. The guerrillas are especially active in the last named area.
2. Supplies for the guerrillas are generally provided by attacks against villages. Such an attack was recently made against three villages in the Harmanli region: Malko Ezeli (sic), Golyamo Ezeli (sic), and Molinovo (sic).
3. The arms of the guerrillas for the most part come from deserters of the Bulgarian Army who flee to the mountains carrying their weapons.
