1. According to [redacted], the comments in the Habana press on the likelihood of a break between the CON (Comision Obrera Nacional) and the CONI (Comite Obrero Nacional Independiente) at the present time are exaggerated and there is a good chance that compromises and agreements will settle the differences. [redacted] the publicity given to the possible labor split was started by the speculations of Mario Barrera, who edits the labor page in Prensa Libre. 25X1X
2. However, in case no agreement can be reached between CON and CONI, CONI is considering the creation of a national organization which would be called the Confederacion Nacional de Servicios Publicos (CNSP). The CNSP would be composed of electrical, telephone, banking, commerce, bus and air transport syndicates, as well as some of the railroad and dock workers unit.
