SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Political Commission of the Communist Party of Chile (PCCh) has approved a resolution which set up a formula for unity for all anti-government parties, including the Partido Agrario Laborista (Agrarian-Labor Party). The PCCh considers that a Nazi taint still exists among the directors and militants of the Agrarian-Labor Party, but voted for its inclusion. In approving this resolution, the Political Commission stated that in no way would it deviate from the Party line of anti-imperialist struggle and agitation for peace.
2. The PCCh does not believe that an overthrow of the government is possible at this time, but hopes that the Frente Nacional Democratico (FND) will gain enough adherents to assure the election of a sufficient number of deputies and senators to impede any policy of the government.
3. To attain the unity necessary for the accomplishment of its purpose the FND will adopt a minimum platform to which all component parties can subscribe. No elaborate programs have been laid out. The watchwords will be simple and will be repeated over and over. The first task was to create an organization and now that that has been accomplished, public support is being sought. Public meetings are being held where simple problems are discussed and an attempt is made to generate public enthusiasm. The essential points stressed are:
  - a. The Chilean government by its present policy is delivering itself up to imperialism.
  - b. The policy of exorbitant prices which favor exploiters must be combated.
  - c. The hunger of the people, brought about by the imperialistic monopolies and the exploiters, must be relieved.
- d. The Political Commission of the PCCh considers that its task is to exploit the latent discontent which exists among the people. At no time, however, will directives elaborating on this policy be issued by the Communist Party and everything will be done in the name of Marmaduke Grove Vallejos, now acting as head of the FND. All instructions, manifestos, and communications will be officially made by Grove.

5. Carlos Rosales will act as liaison between the PCCh and the FND. His only assigned task will be to maintain contact with the directors of the FND.
6. Humberto Abarca was assigned the task of uniting the parties within the FND. It was felt in Communist circles that if he could succeed in uniting the FND and the FRAS,* his election as Secretary General of the PCCh would be assured.

25X1A6a * ~~_____~~ Comment. It has been reported that Abarca has failed in this task.
