1. An Argentine printing establishment owned by a group which includes Evita Peron and Angel Borlenghi, Minister of Interior, has been printing pamphlets and leaflets for the Bolivian Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario (MNR). The establishment is located at Avenida de Mayo 650, Buenos Aires.
2. The most recently published pamphlet, allegedly written by Victor Paz Estenssoro, praised the nationalist movement of Villarroel and bitterly attacked the Hertzog government. The pamphlets were packaged on the premises and removed in a private automobile for clandestine shipment to Bolivia.
3. The Peronista newspapers Democracia and El Laborista are also printed by this establishment.
