SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Jewish camp at the end of Patissia Road (Tsakona estate) is now being used by the Palestine Immigration Bureau as a staging area for Jews in transit from the provinces to Israel. During their stay at the camp, their travel documents are put in order, after which they leave for Israel at the expense of AJDC.
2. On 25 January 1949 a representative and two employees of AJDC went to the camp to take an inventory of the articles there. This inventory was taken on orders of Harold Goldfarb, local director of AJDC, and of Solomon Bit, manager of the Palestine Immigration Bureau.
3. The arrival at the camp of Jews from the provinces for immigration to Israel is still going on.
4. The local AJDC administration decided, effective 14 February 1949, to stop feeding the Jews sheltered at the camp except for children less than five years old. People in the camp were ordered to get ready as soon as possible to leave for Israel. For those who cannot leave, AJDC will undertake the responsibility to find quarters, and they themselves will look for work.
