1. During the first half of November 1948 an "Operative Control Commission" (Commissione di controllo operativo) was established by the Genoa PCI Federation for the Western Zone of Genoa. This Commission is composed of the following men:

- (fnu) Gaggero - From the Longhi PCI Section
- (fnu) Rubioli - From the Pegli PCI Section
- (fnu) D'Addeo - From the Guerra PCI Section
- (fnu) Dannini - From the Jori PCI Section
- (fnu) Avviano - From the Bolzaneto PCI Section

2. The Commission was originally established as an instrument of the Stampa/Propaganda Section of the PCI, but its duties were immediately extended to include the planning and direction of operations such as reprisals, strikes, agitations, etc. It has at its disposition all the Action Squads of the PCI Federation of Genoa.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
