1. Agents of the Dutch Solicitor General H. W. Felderhof are endeavoring to secure documentary evidence to prove that the return of Museo, the equipment of the Indonesian Communist forces, and, in short, the Communist rebellion last year was financed by Matthew Fox through Amir Sjarifudin.
2. Documentary evidence is also being collected to prove that transactions such as offers of arms and ammunition were completed at Manila with the full knowledge of the Philippine authorities.
3. The Dutch admit that they do not have conclusive evidence to prove that Fox had previous knowledge that: (1) Sjarifudin was a Communist, (2) money supplied by Fox would be used for a Communist coup rather than an Indonesian attack against the Dutch.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
