- 25X1 1. The PEENEMÜNDE (N 55/P 83) airfield was still occupied by at least 60 fighters *. A Soviet sergeant stated that the field was to be prepared for occupation by jet fighters, but there were no observations confirming this assertion **.
2. Three double cantonment buildings were completed and occupied by air force soldiers previously quartered in tents. In addition to the fuel dump east of the field another fuel dump was under construction about 3,300 feet west of the destroyed zigzag workshop of the former V-weapon plant and north of the field approach road . The dump consisted of six containers, each the size of a railroad tank car, three containers of half that size and twenty 53-gallon drums.

25X1 3. Maj GALKOV was CO of the KARLSHAGEN (N 55/P 92) officers' club #.

25X1 4. A German employed by the Soviets in the restricted area drove truck [redacted]
