SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

A conversation on 29 June 1950 with MAUNG MAUNG KYAW, the Communist president of Rangoon University Students' Union and prominent member of various Communist front organizations, revealed that he had not yet been informed of the Communist line in regard to the Korean situation. He could only repeat Soviet press releases, insisting that South Korea was the initial aggressor, that the UN decision was not legal and that the United States was intervening in a purely Korean problem.
