SO DISSEMINATION NUMBERED [REDACTED]

1. The formation of an Allied Liberation Power for Asia was discussed at a special meeting of the Asian Cominform beginning 17 August. The meeting lasted seven days. Present were Communist representatives from 13 nations including China, India, Japan, North Korea, Vietnam, Thailand, Pakistan, Indonesia, Burma, and the Philippines. The Allied Liberation Power decided to establish six major operational theaters as follows:
  - a. Central China.
  - b. Northeast Theater (Manchuria and Korea).
  - c. Japan (Headquarters in South Sakhalin and North Korea).
  - d. South Asia Theater (Thailand, Burma, Vietnam, etc.).
  - e. India (India, Pakistan, Ceylon, etc.).
  - f. South Pacific Theater (Philippines, Indonesia, etc.).
2. The Power will set up a joint munitions board to handle the production and distribution of supplies, which will be coordinated by the Soviet Far Eastern Army Logistical Command Headquarters. The headquarters of the board will be at Chian (125-10, 41-07). Each member nation will have representatives on the board. The Japanese Communist are assigned the task of smuggling Japanese technicians out of Japan in order to build factories and operate in Chian and other areas.

3. Chinese Communist propaganda from Peiping, in mid-August, stated that the signing of the American-Japanese Peace Treaty would bring about hostile relationships between the Chinese Communists and Japan. The Chinese Communist take the treaty as another step in the American invasion of Asia. In connection with Chinese Communist determination to "take strong action against Japanese reactionaries", the Asian Cominform has appealed to member nations to prepare means to take the following action when required by the world situation:
  - a. Dispatch troops for the South Allied Liberation Power for Asia. (sic)
  - b. Maintain an economic blockade of Japan. Boycott Japanese goods.
  - c. Sever diplomatic relations with Japan.

4. In late August the Chinese Communist Government was still recruiting troops for the Army because of the Korean War. The Chinese Communists state that the Korean War is a direct threat to China and blame all internal failures on the United Nations and the Korean War. Many American prisoners of war are being used in Peiping for propaganda purposes.
