- 1. A large ammunition depot at Isalmita, on the Craiova-Turnu Severin highway, which was put at the disposal of the Soviet Command Headquarters at the end of the war, is still under the supervision of the Soviet Army.
- 2. A Soviet Army unit which arrived at Bacau in Moldavia on 19 April 1951, has been housed in the barracks of 17 Rumanian Artillery Regiment. The officers are billeted in houses requisitioned by the city authorities. Near the barracks, garages for the tanks of this Soviet unit have been constructed.
- 3. There were rumors in Rumania to the effect that at about the end of July 1951 new Soviet Army units were to arrive at Craiova, in the district of Oltenia; up to that time only a liaison unit of the Soviet Balkan headquarters was stationed there, because this headquarters had been removed earlier to Timisoara, near the Rumanian Yugoslav border.
