Security arrangements were similar to the first day as per paragraph 2 of my Memorandum for the Record of that meeting. A transcript was taken.

2. Dr. Smith opened the meeting by doing in effect a simulated current intelligence briefing as he would normally conduct it for the Director at the morning meeting. The Director pointed out that this was the briefing he got each morning and that in effect similar briefings were concurrently made for the President and the Secretary of State and Secretary of Defense. The group seemed most interested and asked a number of questions about this and the Daily Bulletin.

4. The remainder of the session was devoted to a question and answer period. There are two action items which is developing: (a) Mahon asked for classified and unclassified figures on Russian grain consumption; and (b) Mr. Ford asked for cost figures on Soviet space expenditures.

Mr. Whitten stated that he was "impressed with the objective view of the DCI and he felt it was the most informative briefing ever from CIA." He repeated these comments later and closed the meeting by saying it was an enlightening briefing and particularly found it useful looking at the various problems in all their aspects.
