FROM : [Redacted] Chairman
Federal Women's Program Board

SUBJECT : Meeting with FWPB on 13 February 1979

1. Members of the FWPB wish to thank you for meeting with us to discuss the recently implemented security procedures, specifically the searching of women's handbags. We appreciate your interest and concern in this matter which affects every female Agency employee and we are grateful for your thoughtful consideration of its final resolution. While a variety of viewpoints on the topic were expressed at a previous Board meeting with the Director of Security, the Board voted unanimously to forward its memorandum on the topic to the DCI.

2. Members attending the Tuesday meeting who were not identified in my previous memorandum to you were two NFAC representatives, [Redacted] OSR, substituting temporarily for [Redacted], who is on TDY, and a newly selected board member, [Redacted] OCR.
