The two former German ships "Lutsow" and "Graf Zeppelin", which were reported sunk in the Baltic in July and August, are now reported to have been towed from Swinoujcie (Swinemünde) to the Soviet naval base at Baltischport for repairs and re-commissioning. Following the departure of the ships from Swinoujcie the Soviets spread the rumor that the ships were sunk in the Baltic.

the dismantled equipment of the "Graf Zeppelin" had been put aboard the ship prior to its departure from Swinoujcie.
