	CLASSIFICATION COLUMN AT INL	50X1-HL
	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENC
	INFORMATION REPOI	CD NO.
UNTRY	C sechoslovakia	DATE DISTR. 16 December 1955
BJECT	Construction of a Uranium Ore Mashing Plant in the Morni Slavkov Area	NGLOF PAGES 3
ACE QUIRED		NO. OF ENCLS.
TE OF FO.		SUPPLEMENT TO 50X1-HUN REPORT NO.
4. C. 31 AUD 8	CONTAILUS GENDERATION AFFECTING THE MATIGRAL DEFELISE STATES SHTELIN THE BEARING OF THE ESTICIAGE ACT STO 2. AS AREBURNI, HTJ TRANSMISSIOL OF ANK EBVILLING IN ART EARNER TO AR UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PAR BERRODUCING OF THIS YORK IS PROVIDENTED.	50X1-HUN
P P	Between March and July 1952, an installation, g Mant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17.	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction
p p i	elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners' cl n the area of Mine No 17	Mine No 17. A temporary building
۳ ۳ ۵ ۵ 2 8 8 8	elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17. construction work	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced laborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov
۳ ۳ ۵ ۵ 2 8 8 8	clant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'of in the area of Mine No 17 construction work pre washing plant in 1954. Prior to May 1953, when an amnesty was granted $,000 convicts, including Germans, were detained area for work in wranium ore mines. These convi	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced laborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov
۲ ۲ ۲ ۵ ۲ ۲ 8 ۵	elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'of in the area of Mine No 17. Construction work ore washing plant in 1954. Frior to May 1953, when an amnesty was granted $,000 convicts, including Germans, were detained rea for work in wranium ore mines. These convi following camps: Camp No 12, with about	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced laborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov ote were detained in the 2,800 convicts
P P 1 0 2 8 a 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	<pre>elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17.</pre>	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced laborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov cts were detained in the 2,800 convicts 3,000 convicts 1,500 convicts 7,000 convicts thained for work in uranium ore mers detained in Carp No 12
P P P P P S S S S S S S S S S S S S S S	<pre>elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17. Construction work pre washing plant in 1954. Prior to May 1953, when an amnesty was granted $,000 convicts, including Germans, were detained trea for work in wranium ore mines. These convicts including camps: Camp No 12, with about Prokop Camp, with rore than Svatopluk Camp, with about Lesnice Camp, with about After Fay 1953, the number of Czech convicts de these convicts stayed in the Horni Slavkev area these convicts stayed in the Horni Slavkev area taborers. Detailed figures were not available, the amnesty has had a detrimental effect on the Imrediately after the amnesty were into force.</pre>	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced laborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov ote were detained in the 2,800 convicts 3,000 convicts 1,500 convicts 7,000 convicts etained for work in uranium ore mers detained in Carp No 12 arged without delay. Some of a in order to work as free It was believed, however, that production of uranium ore. free workers arrived in the
P p i o 2 8 a r A T t t t t t t t t	<pre>elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17.</pre>	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced läborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov ote were detained in the 2,800 convicts 3,000 convicts 1,500 convicts 7,000 convicts tained for work in uranium ore mers detained in Carp No 12 wight without delay. Some of a in order to work as free It was believed, however, that o production of uranium ore. free workers arrived in the ovakia. Hany Slovaks were among to 10. The arrival of such .9530
P P P P P P S S S S S S S S S S S S S S	<pre>elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17. Construction work pre washing plant in 1954. Prior to May 1953, when an amnesty was granted $,COO convicts, including Germans, were detained trea for work in wranium ore mines. These convicts of lowing camps: Camp No 12, with about Frokop Camp, with rore than Svatopluk Camp, with about Lesnice Camp, with about After Fay 1953, the number of Czech convicts de these convicts stayed in the Horni Slavkov area taberers, Detailed figures were not available, the amnesty has had a detrimental effect on the Imrediately after the amnesty went into force, forni Slavkov area from all points of Czechoslo these workers They were from 20 to about 50 year </pre>	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced läborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov ote were detained in the 2,800 convicts 3,000 convicts 1,500 convicts 7,000 convicts 7,000 convicts tained for work in uranium ore mers detained in Carp No 12 urged without delay. Some of in order to work as free It was believed, however, that o production of prantum ore. free workers arrived in the ovakia. Lany Slovaks were among is old. The arrival of such
P P P 2 8 a r A T t t t t t t t t t	<pre>elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17. Construction work pre washing plant in 1954. Prior to May 1953, when an amnesty was granted $,COO convicts, including Germans, were detained trea for work in wranium ore mines. These convicts of lowing camps: Camp No 12, with about Frokop Camp, with rore than Svatopluk Camp, with about Lesnice Camp, with about After Fay 1953, the number of Czech convicts de these convicts stayed in the Horni Slavkov area taberers, Detailed figures were not available, the amnesty has had a detrimental effect on the Imrediately after the amnesty went into force, forni Slavkov area from all points of Czechoslo these workers They were from 20 to about 50 year </pre>	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced läborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov ote were detained in the 2,800 convicts 3,000 convicts 1,500 convicts 7,000 convicts tained for work in uranium ore mers detained in Carp No 12 wight without delay. Some of a in order to work as free It was believed, however, that o production of uranium ore. free workers arrived in the ovakia. Hany Slovaks were among to 10. The arrival of such .9530
P P P P 2 8 a f A R d d T I t I I t t I t t	<pre>elant, was under construction near Uranium Ore provided with rooms for the drying of miners'cl in the area of Mine No 17. Construction work pre washing plant in 1954. Prior to May 1953, when an amnesty was granted $,COO convicts, including Germans, were detained trea for work in wranium ore mines. These convicts of lowing camps: Camp No 12, with about Frokop Camp, with rore than Svatopluk Camp, with about Lesnice Camp, with about After Fay 1953, the number of Czech convicts de these convicts stayed in the Horni Slavkov area taberers, Detailed figures were not available, the amnesty has had a detrimental effect on the Imrediately after the amnesty went into force, forni Slavkov area from all points of Czechoslo these workers They were from 20 to about 50 year </pre>	Mine No 17. A temporary building othes was also under construction was still under way on this 50X1-HU for Czech forced läborers, about d in camps in the Horni Slavkov ote were detained in the 2,800 convicts 3,000 convicts 1,500 convicts 7,000 convicts tained for work in uranium ore mers detained in Carp No 12 wight without delay. Some of a in order to work as free It was believed, however, that o production of uranium ore. free workers arrived in the ovakia. Hany Slovaks were among to 10. The arrival of such .9530

