DESCRIPTION OF MATERIAL

A photograph of the town square of Laukuva, Lithuania as it appeared in 1938 or 1939. The cross in the foreground was removed in 1940 by the Soviets and the building, also in the foreground (which was formerly a shop operated by a Jewish shopkeeper) was razed in 1944. When last seen by the source (1944) the entire square was an open space.
