  - b. PFIAB Report, "Intelligence for the Future," dtd 3 Dec 76

1. This memorandum responds to the DDI's request for office-level comment on the PFIAB report of 3 December 1976 entitled "Intelligence for the Future: A Distillation of Views." The very short deadline prevented us from reviewing the report as thoroughly as we would like to and thus responding in greater detail, but we have addressed several specific issues in the report which are of interest to FBIS.

2. As a service of common concern and the Agency's prime collector of overt information, FBIS has always adjusted its priorities and directed its resources to meet, in the fullest way possible, the intelligence requirements of the Agency and the Community. FBIS will participate, willingly and enthusiastically, in any future response by the Agency to the proposals and recommendations contained in the PFIAB report.

3. Our general reaction to the report is favorable. It is thorough in its presentation and offers observations, recommendations and proposals that draw no counterproposals from FBIS.

4. Our comments on specific issues cited in the report are attached. The headings and numberings of our comments coincide with those in the report.
