

Directorate: DD/M&S

Component : Office of Security

Summary description of agreement, arrangement and/or practice of providing support or assistance:

Fairfax County Police Department Bomb Squad has a capability through the use of trained dogs to locate explosives. There is an informal agreement between the Office of Security and the Fairfax County Police Department that these dogs and their handlers will be dispatched to Agency buildings in Fairfax County in the event of a bomb threat.

Description of activity, including relevant dates:

At the request of the Fairfax County Police Department and with the concurrence of the DD/M&S and the DCI,

STATINTL

Location of assistance:

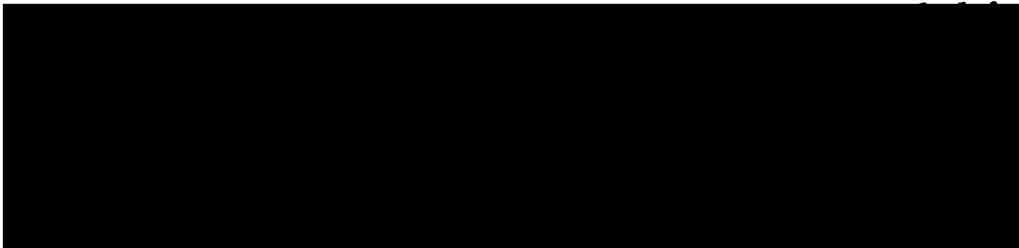

Fairfax County, Virginia

Organization involved:

Fairfax County Police Department and Safety Staff,
Office of Security.

Basis or reason for activity:

STATINTL

Financial costs:

$10.00

Manpower:

One-man day

Agency employee (and telephone number) to consult for additional information:

STATINTL

x7941

Administrative - Internal Use Only