MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution
FROM : Assistant National Intelligence Officer for Warning
SUBJECT : Spring 1982 Washington Area Operations
Centers' Conference (WAOCC)

1. As you may recall, I have scheduled our spring meeting for the 17th and 18th of May this year. We will be holding the conference at the facility [redacted] I will arrange for transportation for everyone, unless you wish to drive yourself.

2. Agenda items that I have lined up so far include:

- a. Briefing by DIA/JSW on their Worldwide Indicator Monitoring System (WWIMS).
- b. A briefing by CIA on reorganization of the Office of Current Operations (OCO) - now called Office of Current Production and Analytical Support (OCPAS).
- c. A review of a Washfax policy directive. [redacted] promised to have a draft ready for the meeting); and
- d. A briefing on the reorganization of the National Intelligence Warning system by [redacted]

3. This will not take up the whole two days. We have the facility reserved so if you have any additional items to present or discuss at the conference, let me know. My initial thoughts are to drive out on the morning of the 17th, have lunch, conduct afternoon and evening sessions, and then stay overnight with another session on Tuesday morning. If we do not have sufficient agenda items, we may want to try to accomplish everything in one day.
