

OFFICE OF
THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

Executive Registry

83-4806

April 5, 1982

Dear Mr. Menges:

This is to confirm the telephone invitation extended to you to attend the Secretary's Roundtable on Tuesday evening, April 13, 1982 at the Heritage Foundation. In compliance with the clearance rules of your agency, we are submitting this letter by messenger in the hope that you can give us a firm acceptance.

The Secretary's Roundtable is off-the-record and will include approximately 20 people. Brief presentations will be given by four participants, leaving approximately two hours open for discussions on Central America and the Caribbean. It is our hope that you will be one of those to give a brief presentation on "The Concept of Negotiations in Central America and the Caribbean". Attached is a tentative list of the other participants.

We hope to see you on the 13th.

Sincerely,

Patricia B. McKee
Staff Assistant

Mr. Constantine Menges
National Intelligence Officer for Latin America - Room 5G00
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Enclosure

State Dept. review completed.

ROUNDTABLE PARTICIPANTS - April 13, 1982, 6:00 p.m.,
Heritage Foundation

Alexander M. Haig, Jr., Secretary of State

James L. Buckley, Under Secretary for Security Assistant, Science and Technology, State Department

Hugh Montgomery, Bureau of Intelligence and Research, State Department

Sherwood D. Goldberg, Executive Assistant to the Secretary of State

Paul Wolfowitz, Director, Policy Planning Staff, State Department

Steve Bosworth, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Bureau of Inter-
American Affairs, State Department

Luigi Einaudi, Staff Director, NSC Interdepartmental Group,
Bureau of Inter-American Affairs, State Department

Edwin J. Feulner, Jr., President, Heritage Foundation

Jeffrey Gayner, Director of Foreign Policy Studies, Heritage Foundation

Abraham Lowenthal, Woodrow Wilson Center, Smithsonian

Jorge Dominguez, Government Department, Harvard University

Mark Falcoff, American Enterprise Institute

Bruce McColm, Freedom House

Larry Sternfield, Inter-American Research and Services

Sidney Weintraub, University of Texas

Margaret Crahan, Woodstock Theological Seminary, Georgetown University

Luis E. Aguilar, History Department, Georgetown University

Franklin W. Knight, History Department, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore

Presentations:

Perceptions of Current U.S. Policy in Central America and the Caribbean: Economic and Political - Weintraub and Lowenthal
The Role of the Church in Central America and the Caribbean - Crahan

Soviet and Cuban Policies in Central American and the Caribbean - Sternfield