Dear Mr. Chiles:

I take pleasure in expressing my personal appreciation to you for the luncheon meeting with our Executive Development Seminar. I understand that in addition to engaging the participants in a candid and informative discussion of the Western Company's corporate philosophy, management practices, and the training and motivation of personnel you also provided a fine Texas steak! As officers selected for their high potential for executive responsibility, the participants have much to learn from successful and enterprising executives such as yourself. Please extend my thanks also to Messrs. William Harrison and Michael Stone for their participation.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
