Memorandum of Conversation

DATE: 18 October 1963

SUBJECT : Executive Pay Bill

PARTICIPANTS: Civil Service Commission:
Mr. John Macy, Chairman

Central Intelligence Agency:
Colonel Lawrence K. White, Deputy Director (Support)

COPIES TO : Ex. Dir., OGC, DD/S (2) (only, chrono)

1. On 16 October I discussed with John Macy, Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, the Executive Pay Bill which is now being considered.

2. I explained to Mr. Macy that the salary limitations which they proposed are adequate to take care of any existing situation now but that someday we might have a situation that the current scales wouldn't take care of. He said, "the Gary Powers type of thing," and I replied affirmatively.

3. Mr. Macy said that he first learned of this when it was raised in his presence yesterday but he understands completely how we feel and why we would want to continue the existing authority of the Director of Central Intelligence as provided in Public Law 110. I suggested that there might be an appropriate place in the bill, such as in line 15 on page 61, to insert a statement such as, "but nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to impair the authorities in the CIA Act of 1949 as amended (50 U.S.C. 403a)." Mr. Macy said he thought this was a good way to handle the problem, that he would have his drafters take a look at it, and that they would contact me again if there should be any question or problem.

Dear Colonel White:

In so far as available, it is the responsibility of this office to report the total employment, the number of new sign-ups, and the total participation in the purchasing of Savings Bonds in the Payroll Savings Plan.

You have had some correspondence with Mr. Gideon Cox, who has been assisting me in Northern Virginia, and under date of August 29, 1963, you reported to him 571 new savers and 162 allotment increases.

If within the bounds of propriety, we should appreciate knowing your total employment and your total participation of payroll savers, as of this date. If we are not privileged to know the total employment of your agency in Virginia, the total participants in bonds purchases would be very helpful for my report to the Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Chrissan:

Thank you for your letter of 20 September 1963. We can appreciate your interest in having complete information concerning the total number of participants in bond purchases in order to make your records complete.

Because of security considerations, it is the policy of this Agency not to furnish statistical information concerning the total number of employees or a basis on which an estimate could be based. We regret, therefore, that we are unable to assist you in this matter.

Sincerely,
