REMARKS

Attached is the breakdown we projected for coverage during my trip. With some changes, as a result of developments after my return, such as the emergence of FVOI and Radio Iran. Of course there will have to be a lot of give and take on this, so this is just a tentative outline--not "cast in concrete."

[] feels that Tehran Arabic might well be more than Gulf could handle, given its projected Arabic staff of three and all of the other Arabic coverage projected for it. They might well be right, so Gulf might want to plan on that being the last Arabic coverage to assume--if staffing permits.

[] sees "no chance" that Gulf Bureau reception will allow it to assume full coverage of Pakistan, and is adamantly opposed to Gulf splitting Karachi coverage with Bangkok, so Gulf will have to have pretty strong (over) DO NOT use this form as a RECORD of approvals, concurrences, disposals, clearances, and similar actions justification for split coverage. They would agree with Gulf taking Moscow and Beijing Urdu--if absolutely necessary to give Bangkok some relief.

Other than that, projection seems flyable, with some give and take here and there. Good luck in working it all out.
