SUBJECT: Cuba Policy Review [ ]

25X1

The President has formally approved the scheduling of an NSPG meeting to review our current policy toward Cuba and to discuss the status of measures decided upon in NSDDs 17, 21, 37, 37(a), and 59, which directly affect Cuba and its ability to undermine U.S. interests and the interests of our friends and allies. [ ]

25X1

The President believes that while measures taken against the Castro regime have raised the cost to that regime, our policy has not as yet significantly deterred Havana. Therefore, the President wishes the policy review to have as its basic objective a significant reduction of Cuban activity hostile to American and allied interests around the world. [ ]

The specific terms of reference for this meeting include the following:

- o A review of all NSDD action items contained in NSDDs 17, 21, 37, 37(a), and 59, and preparation of a detailed status report on each item. [ ]
- o A review of the effectiveness of each action item in the belief that some need to be altered, perhaps eliminated, or complemented by other actions. [ ]
- o An assessment of overall costs to the Castro regime and determination of deterrent value, if any. [ ]
- o Exploration of additional measures that would directly and greatly increase the cost of Cuban adventurism around the world. [ ]
