MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Strategic Research

FROM: National Intelligence Officer for Strategic Programs

SUBJECT: Appreciation for Work of [redacted]

[redacted]

1. Attached is a letter just received from the secretary of the President's General Advisory Committee on arms control. It contains a "well done" for a briefing recently given to the committee by and with assistance from certain named individuals. What the committee and its secretary did not know was that the bulk of the work in preparing the briefing and the accompanying illustrations was accomplished by [redacted] of your office.

2. I therefore want to take this opportunity to express my compliments and appreciation for the professionalism, despatch, and good humor with which [redacted] performed the task. He is one of a number of people in your office who give unstintingly of their time and talents, thereby enabling the Agency to make continuing, valuable intelligence contributions to the work of important policy advisory groups like the GAC. Please share the "well done" with him.
