The Honorable James T. McIntyre, Jr.
 Director, Office of Management and Budget
 Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Jim:

I would like to take this opportunity to advise you that as of 1 October 1979 the Central Intelligence Agency has inaugurated a Senior Intelligence Service that follows the general purposes and principles outlined in the Senior Executive Service feature of the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978.

Although CIA is exempt from the Civil Service Reform Act, we believe that the principles and concepts of the Act are sound. Adoption by the Agency of these principles offers excellent prospects for improving the effectiveness of our senior management system particularly by linking job performance evaluations to determinations of basic salaries and opportunities for additional performance compensation based on excellence.

Sincerely,

/s/ Frank C. Carlucci
