Dear Bill:

It was a pleasure to see you again and exchange views on my visit to Washington last month.

I've enclosed a long article on you published by the New York Times service, which you may not have seen in its entirety.

I just returned from Easter Island where I inaugurated a NASA laser satellite tracking station.

You have a standing invitation to come visit Chile and stay with us at the Residence. We are in the midst of summer.

Warmest regards.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. Theberge".
