MEMORANDUM FOR DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Executive Registry
83-3010/3

Subj: The National Intelligence Daily (C)

Ref: (a) DCI Memorandum of 31 May 1983
(b) DCI Memorandum of 03 Jun 1983

1. (C) I share your concerns regarding the leaks of sensitive information in the NID expressed in reference (a) and am responding to your requests to all Navy recipients for specific arrangements regarding local handling:

a. (C) My Special Courier personally delivers the NID daily at 0800 directly to the Executive Assistants of the Secretary of the Navy, the Chief of Naval Operations, the Vice Chief of Naval Operations and myself. Each copy is individually enclosed in a special NID pouch. Following recipient's review, usually the same day, my courier retrieves each NID. All four copies are packaged together and returned to your agency. This process may require several days because some of the officials are usually on travel.

b. (C) I understand reproduction restrictions of the NID and will seek approval should the need arise.

c. (C) The NID is always returned to the SSO for control, accountability, and transmission to your headquarters soonest.

2. (U) The NIDs referred to in reference (b) have all been returned (23 and 31 May).

3. (U) The NID is always handled on a "hand to hand" basis and retained in an authorized space. We guard it very carefully.

Very respectfully,

John L. BUTTS
Rear Admiral, U.S. Navy
Director of Naval Intelligence
