2. If specific questions arise concerning any of the issues addressed in these analyses, please do not hesitate to call. As you are probably aware, the West European Division [redacted] is responsible for assessments relating to political and economic issues in particular countries. Questions regarding military forces and defense policies of West European countries are the responsibility of the Security Issues Branch [redacted] of the European Issues Division. In addition, the Economic Issues Branch [redacted] examines a broad range of international economic, monetary, and trade issues affecting Europe, and the Political-Social Issues Branch [redacted] covers region-wide political trends. We are always glad to offer intelligence support to JCS and hope you will contact us whenever we may be of service. [redacted]
